UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	§
Defendant.	§

FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This is a pro se civil action brought by Plaintiff Jeral Durant Henderson. On September 1, 2022, the Court granted Henderson's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and attempted to screen his complaint. The Court found the complaint deficient and sent Henderson a Notice of Deficiency and Order (ECF No. 8), which ordered him to file a complaint in compliance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a). The

A pleading that states a claim for relief must contain:

- (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds for the court's jurisdiction, unless the court already has jurisdiction and the claim needs no new jurisdictional support:
- (2) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief; and
- (3) a demand for the relief sought, which may include relief in the alternative or different types of relief.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a).

¹ Rule 8(a) provides:

Order further informed Henderson that failure to respond and cure the deficiencies by October 3 could result in a recommendation that his case be dismissed. Henderson has not filed any response, an amended complaint, or otherwise complied with the Court's September 1 Order. Therefore, this case should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(b).

Rule 41(b) allows a court to dismiss an action sua sponte for failure to prosecute or for failure to comply with the federal rules or any court order. Griggs v. S.G.E. Mgmt., L.L.C., 905 F.3d 835, 844 (5th Cir. 2018) (citing McCullough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988) (per curiam)); accord Nottingham v. Warden, Bill Clements Unit, 837 F.3d 438, 440 (5th Cir. 2016) (failure to comply with a court order); Rosin v. Thaler, 450 F. App'x 383, 383-84 (5th Cir. 2011) (per curiam) (failure to prosecute). "This authority [under Rule 41(b)] flows from the court's inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases." Boudwin v. Graystone Ins. Co., Ltd., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985) (citing Link v. Wabash, R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626 (1962)).

Henderson initiated this civil action by filing forty-eight pages of unrelated documents. He filed the court-approved form, which was one page, but it is nonsensical and purportedly refers to a case from the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Henderson also filed what appears to be pages from a bank account at Wells Fargo, a bill from Baylor University Medical Center, a complaint form for Texas Workforce Solutions, and a job advertisement for a custodian position with the City of Dallas. But Henderson's submission does not contain a short and plain statement of any claim showing that he is entitled to relief. He has thus failed to comply with the Court's order to file his complaint in compliance with Rule 8(a). The Court cannot screen his complaint, and this litigation cannot proceed until he cures this deficiency.

Henderson has failed to prosecute his lawsuit and also failed to obey a court order. Dismissal without prejudice is warranted under these circumstances.

Recommendation

The Court should dismiss Henderson's complaint without prejudice under Rule 41(b).

SO RECOMMENDED.

Signed October 4, 2022.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO APPEAL/OBJECT

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
